WARREN, Mich. – New for many 2018 and 2019 vehicles, FCA US requires diagnostics tool to be compliant with their authentication process to perform any functions that require performing actions or changes to the vehicle systems, like clearing codes, relearns, actuations, adjustments. These features now require the diagnostic tool to complete the authentication process and “unlock” the Secure Gateway Module (SGW) before performing these advanced diagnostic functions.

- OTC software version 3.7 includes Beta Test software giving techs the ability to quickly and seamlessly unlock and diagnose 2018 and newer FCA vehicles equipped with Secure Gateway Module (SGW)
- After the update, unlock feature will be enabled on OTC devices in the coming weeks.
 - Secure gateway unlock feature can be interrupted during the course of the Beta test at any time. Service offering conditions subject to change with official release*

Version 3.7 also includes new coverage for:

- Domestic: Chrysler, Ford, GM, Jeep and Saturn
- Asian: Acura, Honda, Infiniti, Lexus, Mazda, Mitsubishi, Nissan, Subaru and Toyota
- European: Alfa Romeo, Audi, BMW, Fiat, Mini, Volkswagen and Volvo

Coverage additions and improvements include:

- ADAS camera dynamic calibrations, special tests for brakes, instrument cluster, climate/HVAC, transmission, airbag, engine/PCM, steering, ABS/brakes, hybrid, AWD/transfer case, body control systems and more
